

Public Hearing Notice
For the Proposed Amendment of Hawaii Administrative Rules
Related to DLNR's Recreational Renaissance Plan B

The Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR) will hold statewide public hearings for Hawaii Administrative Rule (HAR) amendments to implement Recreational Renaissance Plan B, a Departmental plan to address the aging recreational facilities statewide. Some provisions may affect small business. More information on the comprehensive plan is at www.hawaii.gov/dlnr/recreate.

Proposed amendment of Chapter 13-146, HAR, Rules Regulating the Hawaii State Park System are to clarify some definitions, allow for internet camping and lodging reservations, payment by credit card, update penalties, issue special use permits for commercial tours, and establish entry fee authority for all State Parks to provide increased revenue for improved operations, repair, and maintenance at State Park facilities.

Proposed amendments of Chapter 13-234-1, 13-234-3, 13-234-5, and 13-241-25, HAR, Rules Regulating the fees and charges of Small Boat Harbors and Boating Program are to make modest increase of fees for mooring (+ $3.47 per foot), temporary mooring, and documents relating to registration (+ $5) to enable better repair and maintenance of recreational facilities. Current slip holder mooring fee increase will be implemented incrementally over 5 years.

Proposed amendment of Chapter 13-121, HAR, Rules Regulating the Hunting of Wildlife on Public and Other Lands are to facilitate the development, operation, and management of public target shooting ranges.

Proposed repeal of Chapter 13-125, HAR, Rules Regulating Wildlife Sanctuaries, and adoption of proposed new Chapter 13-126, HAR, Rules Regulating Wildlife Sanctuaries to provide enhanced protection and management of sensitive natural resources in wildlife sanctuaries while facilitating public use of select areas where use is compatible with resource management, and to establish commercial use regulations and fees for select sanctuaries. Base commercial permit processing fee of $10 with fees ranging from $5 per person to $100 per vessel/vehicle carrying 15+ passengers.
